The Hunnewell Cup.

It was announced informally on Field Day, that Mr. Hunnewell had presented the Rowing Club with a $100 Cup, to be competed for annually, by the four class crews. Also, Mr. Hunnewell has stated that the members of the winning crew, including the coxswain, will each be presented with individual cups, each year. This announcement was greeted with much enthusiasm. The designs for the cup were submitted this week.

SENIOR SOCIAL.

On Monday afternoon, June second, the Senior Social took place in the Barn. As is customary at the Senior Social a meeting of the Academic Council forms the entertainment of the afternoon. The petition discussed at this meeting was concerning the advisability of allowing a senior dance during commencement week. We quote the petition in full:

To the Faculty of Wellesley College.

A. Know all men by these presents that the class of nineteen hundred and two sends greeting to the Faculty of Wellesley College:

I. Whereas, the class of 1902 wishes to thank profusely the Faculty for their unutterable, unbounded, unprecedented, unprejudiced kindness to the class, and

II. Whereas, the class of 1902 wishes in some way to show their abject devotion to the aforesaid Faculty—for their prementioned benevolence.

B. Be it here resolved, that

I. The class of 1902 grant to the Faculty of Wellesley further opportunity to show this afore-praised philanthropy.

a. This identical opportunity to be granted to the Faculty only after a unanimous vote of two-thirds of the unengaged members of the class.

II. Whereas, as yet, no entertainment has been provided for the evening of June 21st, and

III. Whereas the afore-mentioned class of 1902 desire no omissions, allowing of recuperation, to appear on their commencement programme, and

IV. Whereas, also, it has been deemed most courteous to keep from resulting melancholia the numerous attending guests, whom such a void would overwhelm, and

V. Whereas it is judged dishonorable to omit expected entertainment, since

a. The aforesaid numerous attending guests consist of our own and other people's brothers.

b. Our own and other people's brothers have come from various and unlimited distances.

c. These same mutual brothers have arrived and remained at unwonted expense, and by extremes of economy.

C. Therefore be it resolved, that

I. Some jovial, felicitous entertainment, at least one during the week, be provided for our own and other people's brothers, hence,

II. We, parties of the first part, do advise and petition that you, parties of the second part, do magnanimously grant to us, parties of the first part the following humble request: to wit:

That we, the class of 1902 may and shall give to our aforesaid numerous attending guests (our own and other people's brothers) a dance, in the only and original Barn, on the previously, deplorably vacant Saturday evening.

D. (P.S.) In order that the Faculty may thoroughly realize the absolute practicability of this unprecedented request, the following details are humbly added for their elucidation:

I. In regard to the requisite abundance of dressing-rooms available for use:

a. By a personal interview with the weather bureau at Washington, May 24th, 1902, it was ascertained that the weather for the afore-discussed Saturday will at least be tepid so that a superfluity of wrappings will not be essential, so that

b. The girls will find ample space for their shawl-lets in the rooms at the laterals of the stage. These same to be stocked with,

1. Mirrors, i. e., hand-glasses none more than five inches in diameter.
2. Pins, at least two sizes, perhaps two papers,
3. Thread and needles only black and white.
4. Thimble, one and perhaps two.
5. Curling iron, electric, warranted non-conbustible, yet insured.

c. The men may leave their bonnets in neat piles on either side of the exterior door.

II. The expense will be immaterial, since

a. The proposed refreshments will be light, perhaps a feeble ice or some ghostly lemonade served outside at the right hand corner of the left hand side of the Barn, under the hill.

1. Such materials and method have been found economical at several late functions.

b. The projected decorations will be most artless; i. e.

1. The fresh young faces of our own and other people's brothers blended with a lavish profusion of blossoming boughs and flowers in every cosy corner.
2. In the open, only a few strident Japanese lanterns will be necessary to fill with rapture all the hearts of the attending mosquitoes.

c. The music will also be trifling, and after a torrid discussion, the class have decided to ask your aforesaid advice as to the efficacy of a pure plain hurdy-gurdy—or a mere pittance of stringed instruments. In this the class have no recommendation to make.

III. It is hoped and advised that the evening meal shall be served early on the prementioned night, in which case

The festivities may begin at 7, P. M., and relinquish at 9.15 also P. M. Thus giving us time to linger homeward with our own and other people's brothers—and yet dismiss the said brotherhood at an early hour.

IV. Although it has been argued that the Barn will be crowded, yet

IV. This argument does not hold, for

a. All the girls do not have brothers.

b. Such deficient maidens may take other people's brothers, thus

All the brothers will be on exhibition.

V. The class hopes to have two species of patronesses.

a. Some members of the Faculty, of which the list will be posted later in the Faculty dressing-room. Members are requested to watch the index-board—the class cannot be responsible—other wise.

b. Mothers—of some of our brothers.

It is thought this would foster a home-like feeling on the part of our guests.

VI. If it should be deemed requisite to postpone any function of the commencement programme to Saturday evening—the dance could come later—if such change be thought agreeable to our patronesses of the first class.

Therefore, hoping that the plans of the class may meet with the satisfaction, approbation, and extolation of the Faculty, I am

Forever yours in cordial expectancy,
FLORENCE NATALIE HASTINGS, Corresponding Secretary of the only class of 1902.

June the second, in the year of our felicity, nineteen hundred and two.

L'ALLIANCE FRANCAISE.

The Alliance Française which has been in the process of organization for the last few weeks is now formed and will hold a reception for the inauguration of officers, either on the evening of June 14 or 16, according to the date on which the Shakespeare Play takes place. The officers are as follows: Honorary President, Miss Hazard; President, Belle Schlesinger, '03; Vice-president, Annis Van Nuys, '03; Secretary, Ruth Whitney, '03; Treasurer, Eleanor Macdonald, '04; Executive Committee, Mlle. Lydie Caron, Florence Piper, Rosamund Clark.

The National Association of the Alliance Francaise in Paris, has appointed Mlle. Schæys, head of our French Department at Wellesley, as delegate from their body. Mlle. Schæys has been deeply interested in organizing the Alliance Francaise at Wellesley, and it is through her efforts that the movement has been started with such success. There are already between seventy and eighty members. The formation of the Alliance Française here is a matter of much interest, and a most commendable achievement. It cannot but increase the interest in French Arts and Letters among the students and bring its members in contact with French people of note; it will also stimulate an interest in conversation.

ALUMNÆ NOTES.

On March 25, 1902, at Seattle, Wash., Miss Delia Maria Taylor, '82, was married to Mr. Louis Gates Whittlesey. Mr. and Mrs. Whittlesey are "at home" 814½ Eighth avenue, Seattle.

Miss Sara Sydney Bullock, '80-'82, was married to Rev. Cary Franklin Moore of Fulton, Illinois, on April 30, 1902, at Lexington, Ky.

Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery, '84, has just returned from an extended trip to Egypt, the Holy Land, Greece and Italy. In Greece Mrs. Montgomery had a very interesting time. A member of the party was seized with small-pox. The husband of the woman who was ill purchased a house with all its furnishings, where the party remained until the patient recovered. Then the house and everything in it was burned to the ground—new clothing being purchased by everyone.

Miss Alice Ames Winter, '86, was the guest of Miss Olive Davis, '86, at Wilder over last Sunday.

Miss Adelaide Denis, '87, and Miss Ruth Tracy, 1900, are doing advanced work in Mathematics with Professor Florian Cajori of Colorado College.

Miss Carrie A. Mann, '93, has announced her engagement to Mr. William Spaulding of Brookline, Mass.

Miss Flora H. Luther, Sp. '90-'92, has announced her engagement to Mr. L. F. Eaton.

Miss Elizabeth N. Doonan, ('92-'93,) has announced her engagement to Mr. John H. Sheridan of Wellesley.

Miss Caroline Fitz Randolph, '94, and Miss Corinne Wagner, '99, will sail for England June eleventh. They will spend the summer in the British Isles.

Miss Bessie Smith, '95, has just returned to Wellesley, where she is staying with Mrs. Durant, after spending many weeks in travelling. Miss Smith has just accepted the position of Head Librarian of the new Carnegie Library in Dubuque, Iowa.

Miss Sarah Lillian Swett, '96, was married to Dr. Josiah Winslow Edgerly on April 2, 1902, at Pittsfield, N. H. The address of Mrs. Swett is 678 East 136th street, New York City.

Miss Helen Sara Smith, '94-96, was married on October 1, 1901, at Red Wing, Minn., to Mr. Frank Victor Stone of Boston.

Miss Clara Hathorne Shaw, '97, spent last Sunday with Miss Lucy Plympton in Wellesley Hills. Miss Shaw will be in the vicinity of Boston until the eighth of June, when she returns to her work at the University of Chicago.

Among the Alumnæ back for the early June festivities are, Misses Bertha Smith, Mary Davis, 1900, and Misses Alice Logan, Madeline Baxter, Annie Davis and Annie McCord, 1901.

DEATHS.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Dr. Barker and The Eliot
at Home
Monday afternoon, June the ninth
From four until five o'clock.

Miss Hazard spent last Sunday in her new house.

Miss Hazard has sent invitations to members of the Faculty and a few friends to a reception in her home on Friday evening, June 6.

As usual on Tree Day, the Seniors were entertained at Norumbega, the Alumnæ at Wood and Freeman, and the Undergraduates at their respective houses.

At the Agora meeting held last Monday evening, extemporaneous speeches were :
"The Birth the of the Cuban Nation," Florence Barth
"The Debate in the Senate on the Philippine Bill," May Landis
"The Terms of the Boer Peace," Harriet Wilcox
The regular program was a meeting of the House of Commons.
Speaker, Jessie Butsinpillar

Estelle Kramer, the member from Hull introduced a Discussion of the Combining of Shipping Interests.

Louise Allen, the member from Burd, defended the Combination.

Florence Barth, the member from Lancashire, asked for a Report of the Government in Relation to The Terms of Peace Harriet Wilcox, as Mr. Balfour, read the Terms of Peace.

Kate Lord, the member from Lynn, opposed the Terms of Peace on the ground of excessive expenditure.

Sophie Brown, the member from Cork, opposed granting the Boers Self-Government.

Elizabeth Sperry, appealed to the house to support the Government in the Terms of Peace.

The Philadelphia Wellesley Club.

The Philadelphia Wellesley Club had its annual business meeting and luncheon at The Normandie, on Saturday, May 17. Seventeen members were present.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Ruth Goodwin, '98; Vice President, Miss Alice Reeve, '99; Directors, Mrs. Emily Leonard Carmichael, '89, and Mrs. Martha Ranson Saylor, '94-'96; Secretary, Treasurer, Miss Vinnie B. Bentley, '97.

The adjournment of the business meeting was followed by the luncheon, in which the color scheme was the "Wellesley blue." On the menu cards was engraved a copy of the Wellesley College Seal. The afternoon was most delightful, and "To Alma Mater" was sung with much loyalty.

COURSES FOR 1902-3.

An outline of courses in economics and sociology for next year has been posted, and indicates many attractive courses. The work will be divided as follows:

Course one: Economics, an introductory course, designed to give the student some acquaintance with economic facts training in economic reasoning; conducted by Miss Whittlesey. Course two: Industrial history of the United States, a study of national development in its material and social aspects, accompanied by a critical review of our economic legislation, commercial and financial,—this work to be in charge of Miss Whittlesey and Professor Dewey. Course five: Statistical study of certain economic problems in the industrial history of the United States; this course will be given under Miss Whittlesey and will be introduced by lectures on the principles of statistical research, each member of the class undertaking the investigation of a particular problem, the results of which are reported to the class. The graphic method of presenting statistics will be emphasized in the study.

Social economics I and II, courses six and seven, will be given, by Miss Balch. The first semester's study will be devoted to the subject of the delinquent, defective and dependent classes, accompanied by a discussion of the methods of dealing with each; in the second semester a discussion will be taken up as to the methods of meeting certain normal social needs, such as housing, sanitation, education, recreation, and thrift. Course eight will take up the modern labor problem, with a study of the various remedies, proposed or tried, for the difficulties of the modern industrial situation,—modifications of or substitutes for the wage system, such as profit sharing, co-operation, trade unionism, arbitration, labor legislation, insurance and pension schemes,—with special emphasis on the American experience. This course will be in charge of Miss Balch, as well as the following course nine, an introduction to general sociology, embracing a study of facts and theories of social development, and more especially of the growth of institutions, such as the family, the state, law, and property.

A course in business methods and business law, similar to that given this year, will be conducted by Miss Caroline J. Cook. This study is intended to train women to deal intelligently with ordinary business situations. Class work will be supplemented by illustrative lectures from practical business men.

College Settlements Association Fellowships.

The College Settlements Association has established Two Fellowships of $400 each for the year 1902-1903, and invites application therefor. One of these Fellowships may, at the discretion of the committee, be changed into a Scholarship of $300.

The object of these Fellowships is to open to a well-qualified person the opportunity afforded by settlement life for investigation of social conditions. The object of the Scholarship is to give training in philanthropic and civic work.

No requirements are made beyond residence in a settlement during the academic year and the pursuit of some clearly defined line of work, scientific or practical, under the general guidance of the undersigned committee of this Association and of the Headworker of the Settlement selected. The choice of residence should depend on opportunities for the work to be undertaken, and need not be limited to the houses belonging to this Association. The time may, with the approval of the Committee, be divided between different settlements.

The basis of award will be solely promise of future usefulness. A college education is regarded as desirable but not essential if some compensating form of intellectual discipline has been enjoyed. Applicants should perferably have had some experience, and very recent college graduates would be eligible only in exceptional cases. Qualifications being equal, a woman applicant will be preferable to a man.

Applications should be sent before July fifteenth, to Mrs Herbert Parsons, 112 East 35th street, New York City. These should include all data that might be of use to the Committee. Applicants should give age, some account of previous education, and state the future work to which they are looking forward. They should also describe as specifically as possible what topic or line of work they have in mind for their fellowship year. Applications should be accompanied by credentials bearing on character, on ability, practical and scholarly, and on health.

It will be regarded as a service if those to whom this notice comes will bring it to the attention of persons who might care to apply.
